MR. WOLF'S HOUSE

Illustrations by STEFANO MARTINUZ
Text by CHRISTIAN MERVEILLE

In a village like those found in every fairy tale, there stands a strange house. This is where Mr. Wolf lives. Mr. Wolf has a bad reputation; everyone fears him. Until the moment when... The book playfully and unexpectedly deconstructs the fears and stereotypes associated with the wolf. The story offers a lesson on the importance of not judging by appearances and encourages children to be open and curious, fostering empathy and understanding. An original reinterpretation of traditional tales integrating familiar characters into a new context.

THEMES: TOLERANCE / CURIOSITY / WOLVES / FEAR OF UNKNOWN / APPEARANCES

DRESS MESS

Illustrations by LAURENT SIMON
Text by MAUDE DE BEL

It happens every morning. Susan loses her temper, rolls on the ground, and fights with her clothes. Oh yes. She hates getting dressed! But it's no fun for her clothes either! They are sick and tired of being tugged on, getting dirty, and tossed about in every direction. What if they hid... so Susan might understand their usefulness?
A picture book for children who don't like getting dressed.
An introduction to helping children understand the importance of taking care of their things.

THEMES: CLOTHES / WHIMS / HUMOUR

HURRY! HURRY! HURRY!

Illustrations by LORENZO SANGIO
Text by CHRISTIAN MERVEILLE

A book to read quickly, running without taking the time to discover all its secrets, or a book to savor slowly, wandering to have the time to admire everything and marvel. In any case, a book to read multiple times. The book offers a valuable lesson for children on the importance of taking the time to fully live and appreciate what surrounds them. The story invites young readers to reflect on their own lives and how they choose to spend their time.

THE LITTLE KING AND THE PARROT

Illustrations by CLAUDE K. DUBOIS
Text by SHAKTI STAAL

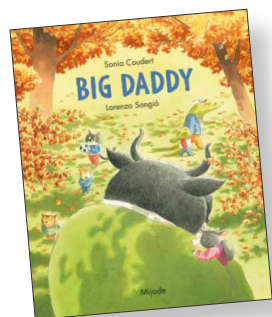

A little king dreams of only one thing: to be a great king. To establish his authority, he orders the construction of a gigantic castle. One day, a parrot, which repeats what his subjects say, comes to torment him: 'How ridiculous our king is! He looks even tinier in his immense palace!' Furious with anger, the little king is determined to command respect through decrees. But isn't he blinding himself? What if the true greatness of a sovereign lays elsewhere?

The story of a little king who tries to prove his greatness through superficial acts before realizing that true royalty lies in kindness and serving his people. This tale encourages children to reflect on the concepts of power and responsibility.

THEMES: POWER / RESPONSIBILITIES / KING / AUTHORITY / WISDOM

40 p. - 14,5 x 21 cm

BIG DADDY

Illustrations by LORENZO SANGIO
Text by SONIA COUDERT

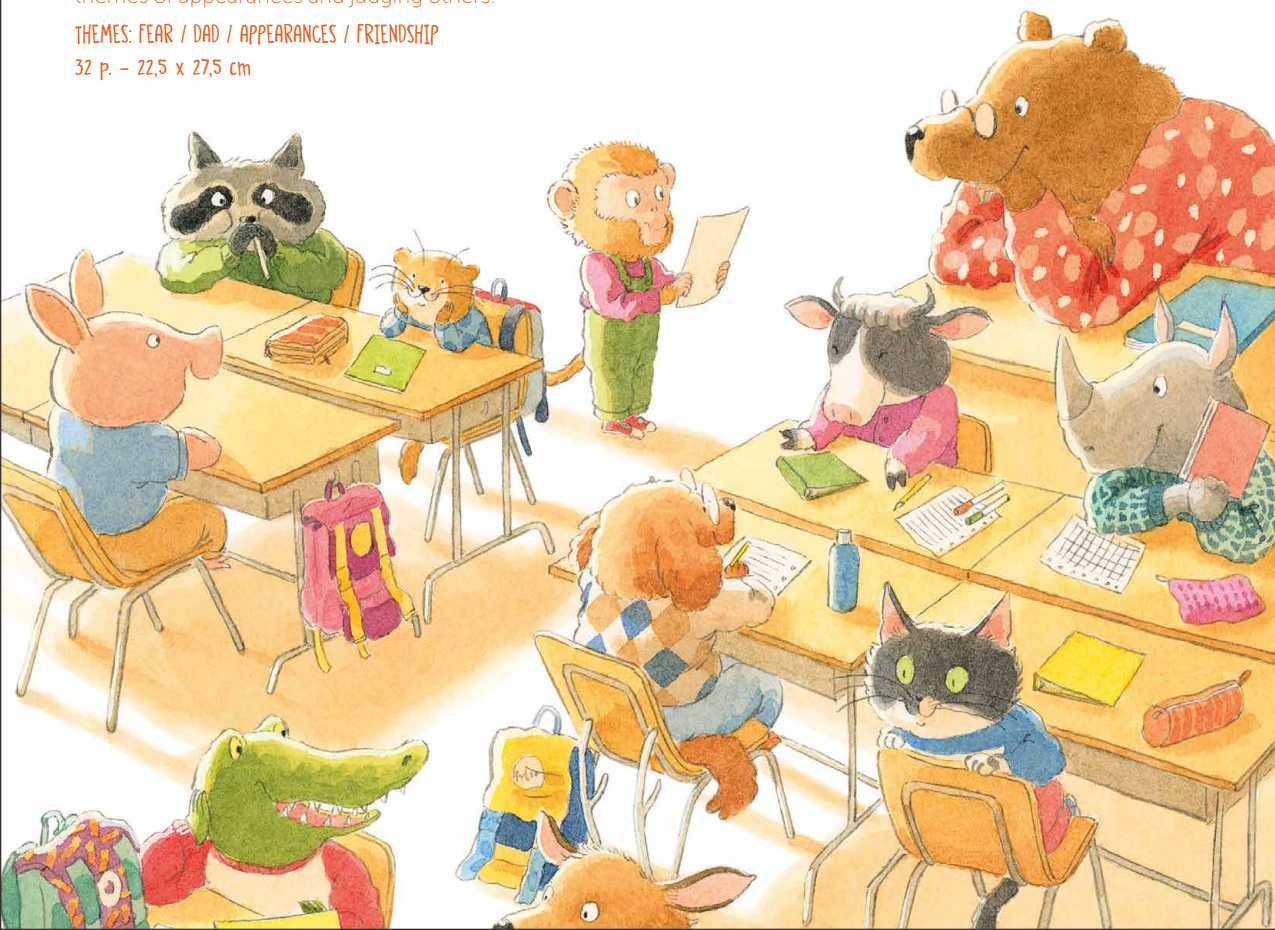

Every morning, Ophelia arrives at school with her dad. Her dad is the biggest, the strongest, the most impressive of them all! To such an extent that all the students are scared of him and never go play at Ophelia's house. Will anyone ever be able to see beyond appearances?

A picture book that reassures children who are apprehensive of impressive dads.

A good way to approach with children the themes of appearances and judging others.

THEMES: FEAR / DAD / APPEARANCES / FRIENDSHIP

A KNIGHT AT DRAGON SCHOOL

Illustrations by SÉBASTIEN BRAUN
Text by VINCENT POENSGEN

Archie and Dragoul are the best friends in the world. But everything changes dramatically the day they go back to school. Archie must go to Knight School, and Dragoul to Dragon School. No way are they allowed to mix since a friendship between a knight and a dragon is totally absurd! Well, we'll see about that!

A beautiful tale of friendship that goes beyond appearances, stereotypes, and received ideas.

A transferable story applicable to numerous situations.

Children also have the right to speak up and be heard.

THEMES: FRIENDSHIP / TOLERANCE / OPPOSITION / DISGUISES / KNIGHT / DRAGON

32 p. - 22,5 x 27,5 cm

WANTED: BOYFRIEND FOR MUM

Illustrations by ESTELLE MEENS
Text by MAUDE DE BEL

It's been three years since Huguette's parents separated. Dad has a new girlfriend now, but Mum is all by herself. She must feel so lonely when her little ogress Huguette isn't around... Who will take care of Mum? Who will be her boyfriend?

A picture book that touches on the themes of divorce and blended families.

A story that reveals to children that not all families are the same, and that happiness comes in many forms.

Children also worry about their parents.

THEMES: DIVORCE / BLENDED FAMILY / LOVE / HUMOUR

32 p. - 22,5 x 27,5 cm

FEARLESS

Illustrations by QUENTIN GRÉBAN
Text by MAUDE DE BEL

"What is it like to be scared?"

Like every respectable ghost, Clint is used to terrifying people. But he has never had the shivers... Fortunately, he can count on his friend Juliet and her numerous fears. Perhaps one of them will be capable of scaring Clint as well?

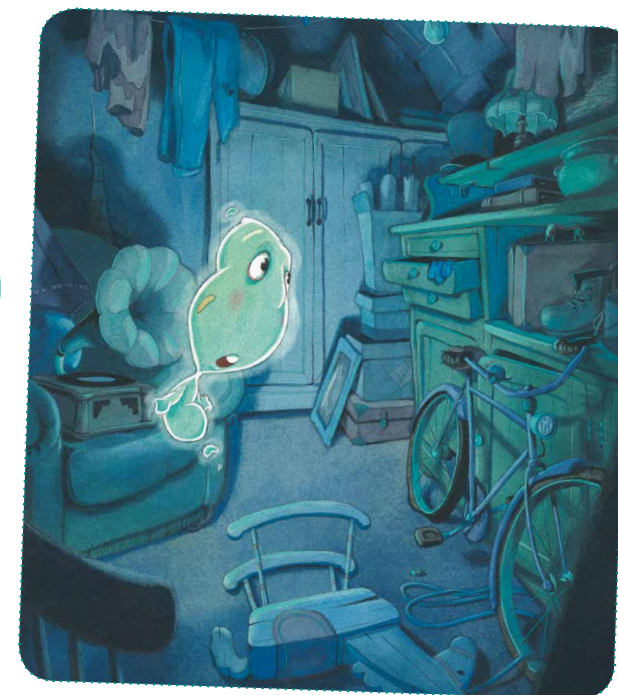

A picture book that raises the subject of fear, the reasons that provoke it, and how it can vary depending on each person.

Ghosts are not necessarily always nasty.

CHILDREN'S FAVORITE HERO

Illustrations by GRÉGOIRE MABIRE
Text by RENÉ GOUCHOUX

A Wolf, a Pirate, and a Dragon meet one day at a crossroads and wonder which of them is the favorite hero of children. Wolf with his big teeth? Pirate with his wooden leg? Dragon with his fiery breath? Fortunately for them, a little girl is reading a book not far from there. Certainly, she will have the answer to this tricky question.

Who has never wanted to see their favorite characters come to life?

Even the bad guys can have feelings.

Three of children's literature's most famous villains take center stage in this humorous story.

THEMES: HEROES / READING AND BOOKS / HUMOUR

32 p. - 22,5 x 27,5 cm

TOM GOES TO SCHOOL

Illustrations by STEFANO MARTINUZ
Text by RENÉ GOUCHOUX

Tom is happy this morning. He's going to school for the first time. All the mums and dads have accompanied their children and are allowed to stay on a bit... but they are having so much fun they don't want to leave the classroom. Say, isn't school JUST for children?

A story where roles are reversed. Adults fall back into childhood and prove themselves to be just as boisterous as children.

A picture book that touches on the theme of back-to-school in a humorous way.

THEMES: BACK-TO-SCHOOL / SCHOOL / HUMOUR
